

Kingston In-Kind Donations Manager

ABOUT TREK FOR TEENS

The Trek for Teens Foundation is an entirely youth-led and volunteer-run charity that focuses on raising funds and awareness for youth experiencing homelessness in Canada. We strongly believe in youth helping youth, and therefore our team is primarily made up of post-secondary students and young professionals across multiple cities in Ontario and Quebec. We strive to ensure our team member's personal growth is aligned to their work at the charity, and that they are able to develop professionally through our organization.

DESCRIPTION

This position reports to the Regional Director of Kingston. You will be responsible for coordinating several special projects, campaigns, and events throughout the year. In particular, the Kingston In-Kind Donation Manager will work collaboratively on several donation drives collecting food, clothing, hygiene products, school supplies, and other items that youth shelters need. This position also requires the management of the in-kind donation collection and delivery, as well as a team of support volunteers. This position requires attendance at all of the regional team meetings. The ideal candidate will be able to anticipate project needs, prioritize duties and help the organization in achieving its goals and mission. The ideal candidate will be an effective team player and add value to the team by creative approaches to foster in-kind donations. Through this position, the candidate will truly be able to help the greater community while gaining hands-on experience.
